The rights and privileges of this contract belong to the Owner during the insured's lifetime. The rights of the Owner include (as specified in and applicable to the contract):

1. Surrender/terminate the contract and receive the premiums/cash surrender value.
2. Make a loan/withdrawal against the contract.
3. Exercise the non-forfeiture options.
4. Assign the contract to a lending institution.
5. Receive dividends and/or change the dividend option.
6. Change ownership.
7. Designate and/or change the beneficiary.
8. Cancel the automatic premium loan provision.
9. Elect a settlement option for payment of proceeds to the beneficiary.

A change of ownership may be made at any time by written notice to us. Ownership will be transferred when we receive and acknowledge this form in our Service Center. Confirmation of this change and any future notices will be sent to the new Owner(s). If designating ownership to a non-living entity or to more than one individual, we may require the completion of additional forms.

The following is a brief description of the types of ownership available.

SOLE OWNER: Has all rights, titles and incidents of ownership. The Insured is the Owner unless a different Owner is named in the application or at a later date. If the Owner is different from the Insured, upon the death of the Owner, the rights and privileges of ownership will vest in the executors, administrators or assigns of the Owner unless contract provisions specify otherwise. Legal documents will be required to change ownership after this time.

SUCCESSOR OWNER: If the Owner is different from the Insured, a Successor Owner can be named. Upon the death of the Owner, ownership shall pass to the Successor Owner. In the event the Successor Owner is not living at the death of the Owner, ownership passes as set out in the contract. Legal documents will be required to change ownership after this time.

Corporation or Partnership

If the contract is currently owned by a corporation, corporate trust or partnership, an Ownership Authorization Form (OAF) must be on file with us or submitted along with this form.

If the new Owner is to be a corporation, corporate trust or partnership, an Ownership Authorization Form (OAF) must be completed and submitted along with this form.

Trusts

If you name a trust as the new contract Owner, generally a copy of the first and last/signature pages of the trust agreement will be sufficient to identify the name of the trust, the trust date, country of registration and Tax ID number, Trustee(s) name(s) address(es) date(s) of birth and signature(s) and the grantor's name and Social Security number. This information must be sent to USAA Life. Unless the appropriate trust pages are on file, to exercise Ownership rights on a contract owned by a trust, an Ownership Authorization Form (OAF) must be completed and be on file with us. If the Trustee(s) is/are "natural person(s)", have signed the application AND appropriate trust documentation is on file, no OAF is required.

The Trustee(s) are required to sign this and all future requests for contractual or financial changes and indicate capacity as Trustee(s). For example: "Jane Doe, Trustee."

A testamentary trust cannot be a contract Owner unless the trust is actually in existence.
