INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The USAA Extended Market Index Fund (the Fund) seeks to match, before fees and expenses, the performance of all small- and mid-cap stocks as measured by the Wilshire 4500 Completion IndexSM (the “Index”).

FEES AND EXPENSES

The tables below describe the fees and expenses that you may pay, directly and indirectly, to invest in the Fund. The annual fund operating expenses for the Fund Shares are based on expenses incurred during the Fund’s most recently completed fiscal year.

Shareholder Fees

(fees paid directly from your investment)	None
---	------

Annual Fund Operating Expenses

(expenses that you pay each year as a percentage of the value of your investment)

Management Fee	0.10%
Distribution and/or Service (12b-1) Fees	None
Other Expenses	0.33%
Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses^(a)	0.43

^(a) Victory Capital Management Inc. (the “Adviser”) has contractually agreed to waive its management fee and/or reimburse expenses so that the total annual operating expenses (excluding certain items such as interest, taxes, and brokerage commissions) do not exceed 0.43% of the USAA Extended Market Index Fund Shares, through at least June 30, 2021. The Adviser is permitted to recoup advisory fees waived and expenses reimbursed for up to three years after the fiscal year in which the waiver or reimbursement took place, subject to the lesser of any operating expense limits in effect at the time of: (a) the original waiver or expense reimbursement; or (b) the recoupment, after giving effect to the recoupment amount. This agreement may only be terminated by the Fund’s Board of Trustees.

Example

This example is intended to help you compare the cost of investing in the Fund with the cost of investing in other mutual funds. Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, you would pay the following expenses on a $10,000 investment, assuming (1) a 5% annual return, (2) the Fund’s operating expenses remain the same, (3) you redeem all of your shares at the end of the periods shown, and (4) the expense limitation agreement for the Fund is not continued beyond its expiration date.

1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
$44	$138	$241	$542

Portfolio Turnover

The Fund pays transaction costs, including commissions, when it buys and sells securities (or “turns over” its portfolio). A higher portfolio turnover rate may indicate higher transaction costs and may result in higher taxes when shares of the Fund are held in a taxable account. These costs, which are not reflected in the Annual Fund Operating Expenses or in the Example, affect the Fund’s performance.

For the most recent fiscal year, the Fund’s portfolio turnover rate was 12% of the average value of its whole portfolio.

PRINCIPAL INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The Fund’s principal investment strategy is, under normal market conditions, to invest at least 80% of its assets in securities or other financial instruments of companies that are components of, or have economic characteristics similar to, the securities included in the Index. This strategy may be changed upon 60 days’ written notice to shareholders.

The Index is a market cap-weighted index consisting of the small and mid-cap companies in the U.S. equity market. The Index consists of the securities within the Wilshire 5000 Total Market Index (Parent Index) after eliminating the companies included in the S&P 500 Index. The Parent Index measures the performance of all U.S. equity securities with readily available price data. The number of securities in the Wilshire 4500 Completion Index fluctuates and may be more or less than 4,500. As of April 30, 2019, the market capitalization range of the companies included in the Wilshire 4500 Completion Index was between $42.1 billion and less than $1 million. The size of company in the Index changes with market conditions and the composition of the Wilshire 4500 Completion Index.

In seeking to track the performance of the Index, the Fund uses the “sampling” method of indexing. Under this approach, the Fund selects a representative sample of stocks and/or derivatives that resemble the Index in terms of industry weightings, market capitalization, and other characteristics. It is not the Fund’s intent to fully replicate the Index.

PRINCIPAL RISKS

Any investment involves risk, and there is no assurance that a Fund’s objective will be achieved. As you consider an investment in the Fund, you also should take into account your tolerance for the daily fluctuations of the financial markets and whether you can afford to leave your money in the Fund for long periods of time to ride out down periods. As with other mutual funds, losing money is a risk of investing in a Fund.

The equity securities held in the Fund’s portfolio are subject to stock market risk. A company’s stock price in general may decline over short or even extended periods, regardless of the success or failure of a company’s operations. Stock markets tend to run in cycles, with periods when stock prices generally go up and periods when stock prices generally go down. Equity securities tend to be more volatile than debt securities.

The Fund invests in small- and mid-cap companies, which may be more vulnerable than larger companies to adverse business or economic conditions. Securities of small- and mid-cap companies may be less liquid and more volatile than securities of larger companies or the market in general and, therefore, may involve greater risk than investing in securities of larger companies.

The Fund may invest in futures, options, and other types of derivatives linked to the performance of the Index or other indices that are highly correlated with the Index. Risks associated with derivatives include the risk that the derivative is not well-correlated with the security, index, exchange-traded fund (ETF), or currency to which it relates; the risk that derivatives used for risk management or to gain market exposure may not have the intended effects and may result in losses, underperformance, or missed opportunities; the risk that the Fund will be unable to sell the derivative because of an illiquid secondary market; the risk that a counterparty is unwilling or unable to meet its obligation; the risk of interest rate movements; and the risk that the derivatives transaction could expose the Fund to the effects of leverage, which could increase the Fund's market exposure, magnify investment risks and losses, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. There is no guarantee that derivative techniques will be employed or that they will work as intended, and their use could lower returns or even result in losses to the Fund.

While the Fund attempts to match the performance of the Index as closely as possible before the deduction of fees and expenses, the ability of the Fund to meet its investment objective depends to some extent on the cash flow in and out of the Fund. The Fund's performance may be affected by factors such as the size of the Fund's portfolio, transaction costs, management fees and expenses, and brokerage commissions and fees. Changes in the cash flow of the Fund may affect how closely the Fund tracks the Index. The Fund's use of representative sampling may cause the tracking error to be higher than would be the case if the Fund purchased all of the securities in the Index.

An investment in a Fund is not a deposit in a bank and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency.

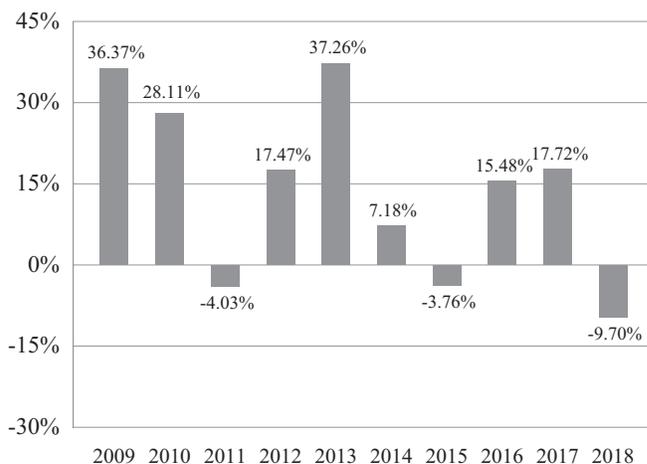

PERFORMANCE

The following bar chart and table are intended to help you understand the risks of investing in the Fund. The bar chart provides some indication of the risks of investing in the Fund and illustrates the Fund's volatility and performance from year to year for each full calendar year over the past 10 years. The table shows the Fund's average annual total returns for the periods indicated compared to those of the Fund's benchmark index. Performance reflects any expense limitations in effect during the periods shown.

Remember, historical performance (before and after taxes) does not necessarily indicate what will happen in the future. For the Fund's most current performance information, log on to usaa.com or call (800) 235-8396.

RISK/RETURN BAR CHART Annual Returns for Periods Ended December 31

During the periods shown in the chart:	Returns	Quarter ended
Highest Quarter Return	20.56%	June 30, 2009
Lowest Quarter Return	-20.67%	September 30, 2011
Year-to-Date Return	15.86%	March 31, 2019

After-tax returns are calculated using the historical highest individual federal marginal income tax rates and do not reflect the impact of state and local taxes. In certain situations, the return after taxes on distributions and sale of fund shares may be higher than the other return amounts. A higher after-tax return may result when a capital loss occurs upon redemption and translates into an assumed tax deduction that benefits the shareholder. The actual after-tax returns depend on your tax situation and may differ from those shown. If you hold your shares through a tax-deferred arrangement, such as an individual retirement account (IRA) or 401(k) plan, the after-tax returns shown in the table are not relevant to you.

The Wilshire 4500 Completion Index is a market cap-weighted index consisting of the small and mid-cap companies in the U.S. equity market. The Index consists of securities within the Wilshire 5000 Total Market Index (Parent Index) after eliminating the companies included in the S&P 500 Index. If you purchase shares of the Fund through a broker-dealer or other financial intermediary (such as a bank), the Fund and its related companies may pay the intermediary for the sale of such shares and certain servicing and administrative functions.
